

Maximum Firepower

Nightwatchman

Ami

This one\'s for the shoeshine boy

And the farmer in debt

Ami

Each string is barbed wire

Each chord is a threat

G

This blues guy I met

That never had a hit

Ami

Said you don\'t gotta be loud, son

To be heavy as shit

Ami

Well I\'m the triggerman, baby

And tonight I\'ll prove

Ami

That this machine here

Well it kills fascists too

G

And don\'t be surprised

If the sermon on the mount

Ami

Next time is delivered

In a little coffee house

Dmi

Cause somebody here\'s

Gotta let them know

Ami

I doubt it\'s me

But here I go

Dmi

I hit the button

Tape started to roll

Ami

The song\'s got fire

G

But it\'s got no soul

C

Ami

G

There\'s a lonely stretch of blacktop

G

Ami

Between here and home

C

GAmi

Drop down into the valley

G

Ami

Piano playin\' in the living room

F

Ami

And when you see the white barn

G

Ami

You\'ll know the journey\'s through

C

G

Ami

My dog\'s barking in the backseat

G

Ami

Cause he knows it too

DmiCG

Ami

You\'ll need a fake passport

And fix your disguise

And don\'t fire, sugar

Til you see the whites of their eyes

G

I turned the other cheek

But now I\'m through

Ami

The skin you\'re in

Makes choices for you

Dmi

I was checking off names

And I came late to dinner

Ami

Seems the slices of pie

Keep getting thinner and thinner

G

Brothers and sisters

Rejoice and repent

Ami

The landlord's dead

You can keep the rent

Dmi

You got twelve fine friends

But one of 'em's rotten

Ami

There's a hole out back

Ain't got no bottom

Dmi

Forty days in the wilderness

Forty sleepless nights

Ami

I'm confused, half blind

G

And sure I'm right

There's a lonely stretch of blacktop

Between here and home

Drop down into the valley

Piano playin' in the living room

And when you see the white barn

You'll know the journey's through

My dog's barking in the backseat

Cause he knows it too

Dmi

Officer please

I won't be long

Ami

Called the radio station

Requested this song

Dmi

I had my doubts

About what I knew

Ami

So I turned it up

G

Then it sounded true

Ami

Kiss the ring

If the Queen will let you

But come over the fence

And the dogs will get you

G

On a rope hung the traitor

On a hook hung the meat

Ami

You and me are missing persons

C

G

Til we\'re counted in the streets

Ami

So seize the time

And storm the tower

G

And come correct

Ami

With Maximum Firepower

For the sins of the fathers

The son he must pay

The Nightwatchman giveth

C

G

And he taketh away

Dmi

Thought hard about this next line

Pretty sure it\'s true

Ami

If you take a step towards freedom

It\'ll take two steps towards you

Dmi

So mister I ain\'t scared

And mister I ain\'t worried

Ami

G

Cause on that lonely stretch of blacktop

I sit as judge and jury

There\'s a lonely stretch of blacktop

Between here and home

Drop down into the valley

Piano playin\' in the living room

And when you see the white barn

You know the journey\'s through

My dog\'s barking in the backseat

Cause he knows it too

Ami

The clock strikes the hour

Tonight we ride

G

You\'ve got three more seconds

Ami

To choose sides