

I Can Feel The Rain

Nikki Flores

(Verse)

Somewhere on the road I was taken
I missed a step, I missed a sign, I lost my way... somewhere
But even though my heart feels like breaking
I'll cry tonight but when I wake there'll be another day

(Chorus)

And all the things we take for granted
Every gift that we've been handed
Baby it can slip away
And there isn't time to say goodbye
I woke up to a cloudless sky
Now baby I can feel the rain
But I know I'll find the sun again
Yes I will

(Verse)

Somehow all the dreams I was chasing
Seemed like enough but all the love got left behind... somehow
I couldn't see the mess I was making
Staring so hard up at the stars can make your eyes go blind

(Chorus)

And all the things we take for granted
Every gift that we've been handed
Baby it can slip away
And there isn't time to say goodbye
I woke up to a cloudless sky
Now baby I can feel the rain
But I know I'll find the sun again

(Bridge x2)

Baby, I can feel it
Baby, I can feel it
Baby, I can feel the rain

(Chorus)

And all the things we take for granted
Every gift that we've been handed
Baby it can slip away
And there isn't time to say goodbye
I woke up to a cloudless sky
Now baby I can feel the rain
But I know I'll find the sun again

Yea, I know I'll find the sun again
Yes I will
