

Roll Roll And Flee

Nikola Šarčević

Roll roll and flee
For once in a way
Just do as you please
It's your time today
You look like a ghost
But talk like a saint
Okay at the most
You have no complaints

Only in darkness
Your stars come to light
Only in darkness
It's all black and white

You hurry, but why?
Where are you about to go?
Do you wish to die?
Well, that you don't know
If there's life after death
Then man what I've lost
I can still see your breath
Turn into frost

Not only with sadness
I think of you now
Not only with sadness
I lost you somehow

You lost yourself inside
But I found a place to hide.
