Blackbird

Nina Simone

Why you wanna fly Blackbird you ain't ever gonna fly No place big enough for holding all the tears you're gonna cry Cause your mama's name was "Lonely" and your daddy's name was "Pain"

And they call you little sorrow cause you'll never love again

So why you wanna fly Blackbird you ain't ever gonna fly You ain't got no one to hold you you ain't got no one to care If you'd only understand dear nobody wants you anywhere So why you wanna fly Blackbird you ain't ever gonna fly
