

Consummation

Nina Simone

And now we are one
Let my soul rest in peace
At last it is done
My soul has been released

For thousands of years
My soul has roamed the earth
In search of you
So that someday I could give birth

To know joy, joy, joy, joy
Joy and peace is mine, peace divine
And now we give thanks
Give thanks for each other

Peace forever for it is done
At peace forever for we are one
