You Don't Know What Love Is

Nina Simone

You don't know what love is 'Till you've learned the meaning of the blues 'Till you've loved a love you've had to lose You don't know what love is

How could you know how lips hurt 'Till you've kissed and had to pay the cost Baby, 'till you've flipped your heart and you have lost You don't know what love is

Do you know how lost heart fears The thought of reminiscing? And how lips taste of tears Oh, they lose their taste for kissing

You don't know how hearts burn For love that cannot live, yet never dies 'Till you've faced each dawn with sleepless eyes You don't know what love is

You don't know what love is How could you know how lips hurt 'Till you've kissed and had to pay the cost Baby, 'till you've flipped your heart and you have lost You don't know what love is

Do you know how lost heart fears The thought of reminiscing? And how lips taste of tears Oh, they lose their taste for kissing

You don't know how hearts burn For love that cannot live, yet never dies Baby, 'till you've faced each dawn with sleepless eyes You don't know No, you'll never know What love is
