Niobeth

Summer dawn in the bay I walk,
I feel future dancing so sweet,
"Come with me, my dear", she sings
"Come with me and smile, feel free"

Dreaming much higher
inside my own paradise
My wings will fly over the oceans
to find a new light

Stand up however strong the fall may be Paint with silvery moonbeams your dreams
"Close your eyes, breath in", she sings
"Kiss the lips of Maiden Fate"

Dreaming much higher
inside my own paradise
to find a new light

Never give up
Find your light
If you shine and believe in yourself
There will be no slope steep enough to stop your climb to top

Dreaming much higher
inside my own paradise
My wings will trace a path to grace to find a...

Dreaming much higher

to find a new light
