

Lullaby

Niykee Heaton

Let me sing you a lullaby
Promise I won't stay the night
I just wanna make you feel something, something
Let me sing you a lullaby
Promise I won't stay the night
I just wanna make you feel something, something
Let me sing you a lullaby
Promise I won't stay the night
I just wanna make you feel something, something
Red cup chilling with my hands up
Killing it, I can't stop
Sinning, but I'm winning, so lifted
I'mma take you there
I'mma take you there
Lips so pretty when I lay low
Pull up in your city with my bass low
Can't go with me
Imma take you there
Imma take you there
Let me sing you a lullaby
Promise I won't stay the night
I just wanna make you feel something, something
Let me sing you a lullaby
Promise I won't stay the night
I just wanna make you feel something, something
Can't f*ck with me, got my lane closed, shifting
Wearing plain clothes, shitting on you lame hoes

Simply tryna take you there
Let me take you there
Hold up, hold up
Can't f*ck with another
Can't touch, only wanna make you love
Baby, let me break you off
Tell me, let me take you there
Let me take you there
Let me sing you a lullaby
Promise I won't stay the night
I just wanna make you feel something, something
Let me sing you a lullaby
Promise I won't stay the night
I just wanna make you feel something, something
So, baby turn the lights off
Let me get inside your mind
Hit the right spot
Swear to god
Oh, baby turn the lights off
Let me get inside your mind
Hit the right spot
Swear to god
Let me sing you a lullaby
Promise I won't stay the night
I just wanna make you feel something, something
Let me sing you a lullaby
Promise I won't stay the night
I just wanna make you feel something, something
Sing you a lullaby
