

God Save

No Motiv

I look around me, a place filled with hate
We do what we can with the words that we say
In this life time I will never see a place that we can live in compatibly
But will there be a turn of the tide
Will anyone listen to the people who cried
Is there hope for a world that's so cruel
For this I plead,
God save the world!
God save the world!
God save the world!