

Best Regards

No Use for a Name

Don't take it so hard; we're not against you.
It's really not that bad,
It's just that they want you to think that it is.
I'm over the past, but I can't defend you,
So I'll say it one last time
Before I leave that life behind.

It's easy to abuse
The friends that end up screwed.
Just take one for the team.
I hope you're happy.

It's hard to believe that once there was something,
Something to be said
For sinking the ship that I wanted to sail.
You don't have a clue, you never can,
And never will, but I'll suck it up and lie
With all my dignity and pride.

These words can't say it all.
You're feeling ten feet tall,
And stronger everyday.
I've learned to walk,
I've learned to walk away.

So easy to confuse
Another lie that's true.
You'll find out for yourself.
I hope you're happy.
