

My Broken Heart

Noah and the Whale

You can give up anything when you're following your heart I never had the time to show I could depart with my whole being, go back to the start Oh I promised more in vows than I ever give with my heart but I'll be lonely
Oh I'll be lonely
Oh I'll be lonely
oh again

Broken hearts are a fickle thing and complicated too
I thought I believed in love but I've never seen it through Oh I didn't marry the girl I loved I saw my world cave in, felt like giving up but I'll be laughing
Oh I'll be laughing
Oh I'll be laughing
oh again

I've been looking for hope these days but loves not finding me but now my hearts been broken there is nothing you can do I'm impenetrable to pain
Oh, you can break my broken heart
Oh no, you can break my broken heart
