

Mr. Percocet

Noah Cyrus

You are overly sensitive so I won't say much
But my heart gets pulled into pieces whenever you're poured up

You are malevolent and benevolent
You are the devil that I revel in

I barely recognize you when you wake up in the morning
Must be someone else's eyes that I look into every night
You're only kind when you're all fucked up
You're only mine 'til you're high is gone
But I wish you'd still love me when your drugs wear off in the morning

I come second to every Percocet that you take (And I know)
You want someone who worship the worst of your mistakes

But you are malevolent and benevolent
You owe me nothing and everything

I barely recognize you when you wake up in the morning
Must be someone else's eyes that I look into every night
You're only kind when you're all fucked up
You're only mine 'til you're high is gone
But I wish you'd still love me when your drugs wear off in the morning

You, you (I wish that you was kind)
You, you (I wish that you was kind)
You (You are, you are), you (You are, I wish that you was kind)
You (You are, you are), you

I barely recognize you when you wake up in the morning
Must be someone else's eyes that I look into every night
You're only kind when you're all fucked up
You're only mine 'til you're high is gone, so
Maybe I should leave before your drugs wear off in the morning
