The Longest Line

In the darkest tunnel it's nice to see a light Not just a headlight Like the one that's heading right for me It would be nice if things could turn out right Turn out right yeah Don't think I'll ever see the day

I must have done something wrong Or maybe pissed off god.

I think of Chinese food when I think of life That's sweet and sour My life is sweet as saccharine You know 3 week old milk and grapes are not Not the same, no I am the one Johnny Carcinogen

I must have fucked with some witch In turn she cursed me, cursed my life

At the end of the longest line That's where I will always be If you need to find me Just go to the end of the longest line

But officer that was a yellow light The light was red, son Insubordination, reckless driving I must be wrong this can't be right I don't belong, this world is much to dangerous For someone lacking luck like me

At the end of the longest line That's where I will always be If you need to find me Just go to the end of the longest line At the end of the longest line That's where I will always be At the end of the longest line
