Dead Soul

Hard to believe what your eyes are seeing Body and soul and my mind are fleeing Can't stand anymore without disagreeing Can't even see how this is going to be It's not gonna be a happy ending Where you and I just make up and left You try to be so condescending It's pushed me away and I'm never coming back

Now you're alone and your Soul is Dyin' Now you're alone and your Soul is Dyin' Now you're alone and your Soul is Dyin' Now you're alone and your soul is beggin'

Struggle to keep from fallin' so far Even when I had to wait too soon Our happiness came with such rare occasions It's amazing we got this far at all

Now you're alone and your Soul is Dyin' Now you're alone and your Soul is Dyin' Now you're alone and your Soul is Dyin' Now you're alone and your soul is beggin'
