

Pins and Needles

Nonpoint

There's blood in the water and no time to be diplomatic.
Cause in a second I know you'll be circling.
Since the beginning of all this you've been problematic.
Forget about all of the talking and let's get to arguing.

It's a crime to think that you weren't honest about your extra mileage.
Lie to me don't be so indifferent about things meant for violence.
Try to take a look inside and see if you can find me a needle in
a haystack.
Lie to me don't be so indifferent about things meant for violence.

I'm standing on pins and needles.
I'm standing on pins and needles.
Pins and needles.

What are we waiting for? What are we waiting for?
I got a speech prepared, I got a fast way out.
And stories that I'm telling the world.
I'm ready already easy with all the attitude
Lose the face before I lose my patience.
And get ready for the battle of the century
about the things you didn't mention.

It's a crime to think that you weren't honest about your extra mileage.
Lie to me don't be so indifferent about things meant for violence.
Try to take a look inside and see if you can find me a needle in
a haystack.
Lie to me don't be so indifferent about things meant for violence.

I'm standing on pins and needles.
I'm standing on pins and needles.
Pins and needles.
