Róisín Dubh (Black Rose): A Rock Legend

Northern Kings

Tell me the legends of long ago When the kings and queens would dance in the realm of the Black Rose Play me the melodies I want to know So I can teach my children, oh

Pray tell me the story of young C Chulainn How his eyes were dark his expression sullen And how he'd fight and always won And how they cried when he was fallen

Oh tell me the story of the Queen of this land And how her sons died at her own hand And how fools obey commands Oh tell me the legends of long ago

Where the mountains of Mourne come down to the sea Will she no come back to me Will she no come back to me

Oh Shenandoah I hear you calling Far away you rolling river Roll down the mountain side On down on down go lassie go

Oh Tell me the legends of long ago When the kings and queens would dance in the realms of the Black Rose Play me the melodies so I might know So I can tell my children, oh

My Roisin Dubh is my one and only true love It was a joy that Joyce brought to me While William Butler waits And Oscar, he's going Wilde

Ah sure, Brendan where have you Behan? Looking for a girl with green eyes My dark Rosaleen is my only colleen That Georgie knows Best

But Van is the man Starvation once again Drinking whiskey in the jar-o Synge's Playboy of the Western World

As Shaw, Sean I was born and reared there Where the Mountains of Mourne come down to the sea Is such a long, long way from Tipperary
