

No Escape

Northern Lite

No way to escape, no way to run away,
to ever forget what we have done.

No way to escape, no way to run away,
to ever forget what we have done.

Could you be the one?

Don't know what I did before
Left it all behind
But I know what I've been missing
Now that you're mine

Could this be the time?
Could this be the time?

No way to escape, no way to run away,
to ever forget what we have done.

No way to escape, no way to run away,
to ever forget what we have done.

Could you be the one?

No other song to sing
For the ones outside
No chance to ever get here
Or try what we've tried

And did tonight

No reason to step back
Or calculate
Just like the first time
We don't hesitate

Could this be fate?

No way to escape, no way to run away,
to ever forget what we have done.

No way to escape, no way to run away,
to ever forget what we have done.

Could you be the one?

No way to escape, no way to run.
No way to ever forget what we've done.

No way to escape, no way to run.
No way to ever forget what we've done.
