

Freezing Sadness

Northland

As darker as the night my soul remains, but a radiant flame is burning inside my heart

The rain is falling over me
like sadness
The wind is blowing against me
once again.

The snow is falling down to bury my sins
let the ice freeze me for all eternity

I call on you to night
wake up and freeze me
but sadness will always remain in my heart

(Enterraré mis penas en el hielo
y no volveré jamás...
Para mí la vida se acabó...)

The rain is falling over me
like sadness
The wind is blowing against me
once again.

The snow is falling down to bury my sins
let the ice freeze me for all eternity

I call on you to night
wake up and freeze me
but sadness will always remain in my heart

When the ice fill my heart and flow through my veins Death will be waiting for me.
When my life and my breath vanish away my last heartbeat will be for you.

Its time to leave and no return Remember me better than I was

I call on you to night
wake up and freeze me
but sadness will always remain in my heart

I call on you to night
wake up and freeze me
but sadness will always remain in my heart...
