

I'll Find You

Number One Gun

Another face just like hers
She won't hold back without you
The sun will find you underneath your skin
You can't hide it and I'll be there
Waiting for you now, go on
Her perfect eyes are bleeding
Her mind so dead she can't take it
Can't take the world, it's too heavy
The sun will find you underneath your skin
You can't hide it and I'll be there
Waiting for you now, go on, go on
And under the mess, you're working against me
You're wishing you're dead but I will amend you
And you won't forget, you won't forget me
And wash out your hands it's time to come in
