I dont know what im doing tonight, but thats alright
i dont know what im doing with my life but thats fine
i dont know what were singing tonight and thats alright

i dont konw what im singing about now cause the years are young feel like i can learn alot if i openup my eyes but im just fine (fine)

and ill never cry again
and ill never lie again cause i dont want to be a falling star in you eyes
and ill never cry again

i dont know what today will bring to my life but thats just fine
i got my bags packed, im leaving home for the very first time i cant fucking wait

cause i dont want to be a falling star in your eyes

oh no im going out tonight and the kids are alright well lordy dear
his life is bright and ill open up my eyes its 12 oclock where are your kids tonight theyre doing just fine, doing fine tonight i let you know i love you and im going out tonight
