

An Epilogue to Infinity

Obscura

I, I'm the bringer of light and glance into
Doom, resurrected in gloom
I enfold, as your destiny and blaze into Fate, incarnated in grace into

A farewell to the stars, redeemer of the final abyss
A farewell to eternal spheres, deliverer of the solar eclipse

I, I'm the savior, liberator, destroyer
In eclectic sanctuary
I pass, within remnants of yore, neglect
A purified divine achieved

I, I'm the savior of light and glance into Doom, I wander in gloom
And drown in ablaze of perpetual distress
Dissolving in aeons of perennial black mass
Chaos, distress, and wrath and death

Deliverance and Consciousness, aeonic destiny
Immanent and transcendent, where spirits reunite
A maelstrom of unity, eternal and divine
A farewell to infinity, each soul glorified
