

I despise this journey through my will
Ordained to sanctify
I devour their dismay
As an astral parasite, decreed to purify

We are, we are the damned and isolated
In solitude disengaged
We are conjured and segregated
In abeyance transcended

I am the fallen shining star
An evoked blazing scar

We derived in solitude
The usurper omniscient in vale
Sere encrusted we collude
We're nauseated, we descend in faith

I remind, recall their bitter afterglow
Illusions and visions designed
Their eagerness seduced, neurotic fears entranced
Their power of volition deranged

I condemn, comprehend and will deny
Redeem and dignify
Yeah
I am entranced in scattering light
Divined and reunite

We derive in solitude
The usurper omniscient in vale
We condemn our fate

I remind, recall their bitter afterglow
Illusions and visions designed
Their eagerness seduced, neurotic fears entranced
Their power of volition deranged
Yeah

I am the fallen shining star
An evoked blazing scar
I am entranced in scattering light
Divined and reunite

Sere encrusted we collude
We're nauseated, we descend in faith
