

Ten Sepiroth

Obscura

A crown, created with divine will
An infinite light of the creator
Through wisdom, from nothingness, a first revelation
An unbound flash widespread, sheer cataclysm

A vessel, made of comprehension
To give it grasp, of breadth and depth

Ten Sepiroth - A central state of unity
Ten Sepiroth - Emanations pure creation

Upholding the heavens, saturating the stars
In splendor bright glory, deliverance ascends
Sustaining the cosmos, a maelstrom of spirits
In newborn distress, emblazed sparkling spheres

Loving grace of inspiring vision
Withhold this victory in mere sincerity
To envision the concentric circles
Conscious alone the heretic

Through wisdom, from nothingness, a first revelation
An unbound flash widespread, sheer cataclysm
Ten Sepiroth - A central state of unity
Ten Sepiroth - Emanations pure creation
