

The Beyond

Obscura

Their heir apparent with a shining crown
In reviled disgrace, our gods dethroned
I confess my guilt, with volition I will drown
My grief profound, in oblivion intoned

Farewell, beyond this heaven and hell
Farewell, where your lies and remains will dwell

In eternal wisdom, they are blessed with fate
In mere dishonor, since annihilated
I perceived distress, my perseverance dissipates
Embraced in triumph, resplendence divined

Farewell, beyond this heaven and hell
Farewell, where your lies and remains will dwell

Their heir apparent with a shining crown
In reviled disgrace, our gods dethroned
I confess my guilt, with volition I will drown
My grief profound, in oblivion intoned

Farewell, beyond this heaven and hell
Farewell, where your lies and remains will dwell
