

Crazy Lowdown Ways

Ocean Colour Scene

Well, I got a problem
And it just won't wait
I've been getting on one
With the man who guards your gate
When he says you're sleeping
In your hideaway
It is what he's keeping back
That gives your game away
Come quit your crazy lowdown ways
You're walking astray
Come quit your weary worn out ways
You're walking astray
And I'd like to say that I like this
More than I do today
Yes, I got a problem
Like you've never seen
I've been getting bothered
By the man who locks your screen
When he says you're hiding
And in your room you'll stay
It is what he's holding back
That says what he can't say
Come quit your crazy lowdown ways
You're walking astray
Come quit your weary worn out ways
You're walking astray
And I'd like to say that I like this
More than I do today
I'm just a lazy man
Who has to hear the truth
And I hear what's true from you
Come quit your crazy lowdown ways
You're walking astray
Come quit your weary worn out ways
You're walking astray
And I'd like to say that I like this
More than I do today
