It's a Beautiful Thing

Ocean Colour Scene

Sonny went and flipped away and said he had to go How could you ever say he never stayed alone And how could I belong with anyone you know Come on every line's a line I'll never know

Oh, it's a beautiful thing Oh, it's a terrible thing

Sometimes I can get along alone enough
Backing everyone away and never have enough
And how could I be playing every line for you
Look at the things today that I can never choose

Oh, it's a beautiful thing Oh, it's a terrible thing

Sometimes I could never ever ever fade again Sometimes I could never ever ever fade again Sometimes I could never ever ever fade again

And how could I be playing every line for you Look at the things today that I never choose

Oh, it's a beautiful thing Oh, it's a terrible thing
