

Down foreign paths and uncharted shores
The beauty lies within these wars
Overcome the wilderness, with countless failures
For I'm not living just to exist
I'm on the verge of discovering this person I'm meant to be

Im on the verge of discovering
This person I'm meant to be
Im on the verge of discovering
My calling

Sometimes loosing yourself is the only way back home
Believe in me, its all you need
True happiness
Is the greatest discovery

Forget the ones who tell you how to feel
It's crystal clear once you know it's real
Been here all along, right in front of you
Stood in resounding opacity
It's the greatest discovery
