

Stuck in Gravity

Of Monsters and Men

I'm stuck in gravity
I'm far from where I wanna be
I'm like a raindrop in the ocean
I get lost in my delusional reality

I don't know up from down
Or when my feet are on the ground
I've been around for thirty years
It's kind of hard to think about your own mortality

And this high, high love
That you give to me
Is all I'm missing
It's all I'm missing

And this high, high love
That you give to me
Is dripping down my hands like honey
It's all I'm missing

I'm stuck in gravity
I'm clawing for some bravery
I try to be still in a moment
And I'm hoping for a never ending odyssey

I don't know high from low
Or when I should be letting go
It's like I'm anchored to the floor
And I need more, I need stars to light the colony

And this high, high love
That you give to me
Is all I'm missing
It's all I'm missing

And this high, high love
That you give to me
Is dripping down my hands like honey
It's all I'm missing

So give me something good
Just give me something good

Staring out the window
Looking at the rainfall
Hoping for the starlight
Head is still an animal

Head is still an animal
