

Barely Asian at the Beefcake Horizon

of Montreal

When I was looking for the rainbow Staring at the gorilla I thought we'd share some sundae oh but you ate it all

And I was so scared to fall but you were some kind of domino

And it was easy
so easy
to care
when you were always there it was easy

so easy
easy when you were always there

But now you know I'm not so friendly and all my friends are alone
