

Your Heaven, My Underworld

Officium Triste

The concept of joy within your mind
Is nothing but misery to me
You can't see it hurts me
It seems you are blind
To pain and frustration killing me
I want to break free from this cage
It only brings depression and rage
I'm on a knife's edge, a cliff above the sea
There's one final wish being free.

You push me closer and closer
To the edge until I fall over
It's time truth unfolds
Your heaven, my underworld

You push me closer and closer
To the edge until I fall over
It's time truth unfolds
Your heaven, my underworld

The concept of joy within your mind
Is nothing but misery to me
You can't see it hurts me
It seems you are blind
To pain and frustration killing me

Your heaven to me equals hell
There's no light in my inner being
Do you understand what I'm trying to tell?
Do you care about the darkness I am seeing?

You push me closer and closer
To the edge until I fall over
It's time truth unfolds
Your heaven, my underworld

You push me closer and closer
To the edge until I fall over
It's time truth unfolds
Your heaven, my underworld
