

In And Out Of Love

Oh Wonder

You're like goddamn dynamite
Lit up in a perfect way
You're the match that made me strike
Crazy little renegade

So many nights to find the one
I had 'em on repeat
Right when I thought my days were done
You showed the sun to me

If it wasn't for you
I'd always be in and out of love
Lying in the wrong rooms
And knowing it wasn't quite enough
I'm trying hard to say
That even if I'd never seen your face
I'd be waiting for you
And always be in and out, and in and out of love

(In and out of love)

You're my secret appetite
Served up on a golden plate
You're the taste to satisfy
Every look that's on my face

So many nights to find the one
I had 'em on repeat
Right when I thought my days were done
You showed the sun to me

If it wasn't for you
I'd always be in and out of love
Lying in the wrong rooms
And knowing it wasn't quite enough
I'm trying hard to say
That even if I'd never seen your face
I'd be waiting for you
And always be in and out, and in

If it wasn't for you
I'd always be in and out of love
Lying in the wrong rooms
And knowing it wasn't quite enough
I'm trying hard to say
That even if I'd never seen your face
I'd be waiting for you
And always be in and out, and in and out of love
