

The Palpitations Form A Limit

Omar Rodriguez-Lopez

Might I crave a crawling imposter
Head held for miles to come
Simply slice a prayer to answer
As the daylight lets me run

Of all the schemes that you've conducted
This one makes it safe
Erasing all my fond memories
Of a life you couldn't take

We all have these disasters
They let you know they run
She'll never stay any longer
As long as you still run
