Holy Martyr

One has seen the power and the glory Whom shall save us from our selves at last Prophets tell of latter years in mourning Voices cry out warnings from the past

Disciples of the Dead- Sea Scrolls are preaching The soul of man lived from the dawn of time With every passing day Mankind is reaching for the gift of truth from the divine

Do we believe in the Holy martyr What is the secret yet to be unveiled Must offerings be made upon the altar Hallowed be thy name or has he failed

Reverance is easy When you sing a Gospel Hymn For the moment tranquil feelings do rise But as trails and tribulations Of your world begin What once was truth is sabotaged by lies

Do we believe in the Holy martyr What is the secret yet to be unveiled Must offerings be made upon the altar Hallowed be thy name or has he failed
