

SISTER SUNSHINE

Omnia

Oh sister sunshine
She leads you through the flowers where our bed is Fall like memories of days that never were
Oh sister sunshine
She stands before you wearing just a sparkle
On the silver ribbons shining in her hair

When all the colours get too loud
Just catch a falling leaf and chase the clouds
That drive away, the cobwebs from your mind
Her smile can lead you far astray
Though you will never lose your way
'cause there's always another day
In the sunshine

Oh sister sunshine
She leads you through the flowers where our bed is
Fall like memories of days that never were
Oh sister sunshine
She stands before you wearing just a sparkle
On the silver ribbons shining in her hair

Lalalalalalala...

Calling sister sunshine
sister sunshine

Lalalalalalala....
Calling sister sunshine
sister sunshine

And as she sings your fears to sleep
With lullabies of ocean deepness
Cradled on her breast
Her thoughts within you seep
You listen to her fairy tales and lies
You're just a prisoner in her eyes
But is she mad or wise you'll never know

Come shine your light on me(4x)

Oh sister sunshine
She leads you through the flowers where our bed is
Fall like memories of days that never were
Oh sister sunshine
She stands before you wearing just a sparkle
On the silver ribbons shining in her hair

Lalalalalalalala...
Calling sister sunshine
sister sunshine (3x)

Her smile can lead you far astray
Though you will never lose your way
'cause there's always another day...
