

The Frontline

Omnium Gatherum

A silent explosion
On the outskirts of the mind
This ability, the need to retaliate
Onwards
Today you are the flame
Break the shackles
Today you are on fire

Do you recall
The hour of burning
Remember
This is the frontline

After the war
No one has won
The days in darkness
The nights in oblivion
Don't you know
You must survive

Cause you care
Not afraid to live or die

Do you recall
The hour of burning
Remember
This is the frontline

Do you recall
The hour of burning
Remember
This is the frontline

The frontline
