

Now I Know

One Chance

Ah ooh, ah ah
Ah ooh, love love

She said she's leaving
She ain't give me a reason
She just walk out the door
And I ain't been sleeping
Trying to figure out why
Why she don't love me no more.
I can't take the pain I
Don't like this change I
Said I was done
But the things just aren't the same I
I love her
And I don't want to hurt no more

I wanna take this time to apologize
To every women that I ever hurt ohh
Cause lord knows I told a lot of lies
I cheated and I did a whole lot of dirt

But now I know how it feels
To lose a lover
Someone who truely loves ya
I wish I didn't have to go out like that
But now I know how it feels
To love somebody
To really love somebody
And find out they ain't loving you back
But now I know how it feels.
And I ain't ever felt this way before
And I don't wanna feel this way no more
And now I know how it feels, more
I know it was real yah
But now I know how it feels

I walked her into the mansions
And introduced her to Hollywood
Put her on the red carpet
But I guess it didn't do a lot of good
Because the money didn't mean nothing
She needed love
I put her infront the cameras
Now everybody saying that
We look so good together
But that ain't gon bring my baby back yah
Because she ain't my girl no more, soo

I wanna take this time to apologize
To every women I ever hurt hey
Cause lord knows I told a lot of lies
I cheated and did a whole lot of dirt
But now I know how it feels
To lose a lover
Someone who truely loves ya
I wish I didn't have to go out like that
But now I know how it feels

To lose a lover
Someone who really loves ya
I wish I didn't have to go out like that
But now I know how it feels
To love somebody
To really love somebody
And find out they ain't loving you back
But now I know how it feels
And I ain't ever felt this way before
And I don't wanna feel this way no more
I knew it was real but
But now I know how it feels

If I'm man enough to say that I'm sorry
You should be women enough to take me back.
If I'm man enough to say that I'm sorry
You should be women enough to take me back
I lied, but you cried
But I tried, baby I tried
To heal the hurt inside,
I knew this shit was real

But now I know how it feels
To lose a lover
Someone who truely loves ya
I wish I didn't have to go out like that
But now I know how it feels
To love somebody
To really love somebody
And find out they ain't loving you back
But now I know how it feels
And I ain't ever felt this way before
And I don't wanna feel this way no more
I know it was real
But now I know how it feels
Ah ooh, ah ah
Ah ooh
