

A Time To Heal

One Less Reason

Well nothing hurts me
Like seeing you hurt
Or changed me
Like the day you went away
I know you said I was never there
You were always a good friend

I don't talk about it
I only cry when you don't see
Though I walk around it
The second I looked away
I felt I was to blame

I never wanted to let you down
But I couldn't fake it
And if you think it's better now
Soon you will see, all the ways

Did you walk in circles, hey?
Did you hurt a little more that day?
I know you said you would never wait
But you were always my best friend

I don't talk about you
I only cry when you don't breathe
Though I waltz around you?
The second I looked away
You fell flat on your face

I never wanted to let you down
But I couldn't fake it
And if you think it's better now

Soon you will see, all the ways

I never wanted to let you down
But I couldn't take it
And if you think it's better now
Soon you will see, all the ways

5:00 a.m.
And its really early for me
I'm tired of replacing
Everyone I need

I don't talk about you
I only cry when you don't breathe
Though I waltz around you?
I heard your voice today
And you swear I'm not to blame

I never wanted to let you down
But I couldn't fake it
And if you think it's better now
Soon you will see, all the ways

I never wanted to let you down

But I couldn't take it
Soon you will see, all the ways
All the ways
All the ways
All the ways
