

Lie to Me

One Less Reason

So what are you waiting for?
I bet you know the perfect world
Where everyone is love
And everything is beautiful

But I won't be the one
My hands will not hold you down again
I don't wanna lose this way

Don't you lie to me
Just tell me I'm the only one
Will not let you down
Nothing can replace my love
Lose yourself in me
And I promise not to give you up
If you won't change
Then I just can't be the same
(Then I just can't be the same)

Tonight is over now
Remember that I left behind
It's destined to killing me
This sorrow and the misery

But I won't be the one
My hands will not hold you down again
I don't wanna lose this way

Don't you lie to me
Just tell me I'm the only one
Will not let you down
Nothing can replace my love
Lose yourself in me
And I promise not to give you up
If you won't change (If you won't change)
Then I just can't be the same
(Then I just can't be the same)

Hold on, I'm falling to pieces
But I know my heart
Will stop beating once again
Let you go now
I just let you go
Now I know my heart
Will stop beating once again, once again

Don't you lie to me
Just tell me I'm the only one
Will not let you down
'Cause nothing can replace my love
Lose yourself in me
And I promise not to give you up
If you won't change
Then I just can't be the same

So don't you lie to me
Just tell me I'm the only one

Will not let you down
'Cause nothing can replace my love
Lose yourself in me
And I promise not to give you up
If you won't change (If you won't change)
Then I just can't be the same
Then I just can't be the same
