

Representing The Poor Man

One Minute Silence

You come as you are, I know you
Into the fray without the rules
The open minds have all been warned
The violent calm becomes the storm

Representing

The dawn will write another day
The sun will rise again enraged
The clocks will tick and talk for you
The moon will serenade your blue

I'm gonna be right there next to you
I'm gonna be right there next to you
I'm gonna be right there next to you
I'm gonna be right there next to you

Representing

Representing

Representing the poor man while
He stands up for the Promised Land
Are we up? Are we up?
I'll be damned, I'll be damned
Representing the poor man while
He strikes back at his brother's hand
Are we fucked? Are we fucked?
I'll be damned, I'll be damned
Representing the poor man while
He stands up for the Promised Land
Are we up? Are we up?
I'll be damned, I'll be damned
Representing - they'll have to kill me
I'll be damned - they'll have to kill me

The day is ours and ours alone
The dying world outside our door
The fickle face of all I know
The truth washed up along the shore

I'm gonna be right there next to you
I'm gonna be right there next to you
I'm gonna be right there next to you
I'm gonna be right there next to you
