

what's inside
far away, separation
I don't know now
looking back far away
falling down inside
I'm so helpless
I want you under I want you on my side you said to me "I want you on my side" I knew just what to say I did it all for you
for you
what's inside
far away, separation
I don't know now
looking back far away
falling down inside
I'm so helpless
you are the one
why am I not the only one decide what you want from my friends someone I know why
decide to stay right now this time someone I know why
then you walk away
I know what it's like watch me fall away from you
then you walk away
so very far from you in a softer way I know it's like
I want you when on my side
I know what it's like
I know it's like
I want you where by my side to save me from myself again far from you
stay down
