

Take No Action

Open Hand

Your intentions are intriguing me
'Cause you operate so strategically

I don't want to break your heart, cause it's oh so wrong
(Take no action)
I don't want to waste your love, cause it feels so strong

Can you feel my eyes on the back of you?
You've got me all tore up; ain't nothing I can do

Gotta shove it down
Gotta wait it out
It'll fade away
Take no action

I don't want to break your heart, cause it's oh so wrong
(Take no action)
I don't want to waste your love, cause it feels so strong
(Take no action)
