

A little bit insane

Orange Blue

I feel a little bit insane since i left that saturn plain 'cause i felt global energy i cant't believe what i have seen. he glid ed to me without a sound ''so long'' he said and fizzled out the space ships lights all turned on and in this moment it was gone . they are beautiful like meat pie my flesh began to creep but t hey are friendly like no others their life's so sweet. i feel a little bit insane since i left that saturn plain 'cause i felt glo bal energy i can't believe what i have seen. i feel a little bi t insane ince these sweet aliens came maybe their conscience is not clear maybe their victory is near. they need no cars no aero planes they fly with thoughts and have no names welcome you wit h kisses and with hugs and you should try their alien drugs. and if lgocal pyromaniacs ever touch your hand you'll be bewitch ed from outta space from orange blue creatures land. i feel a l ittle bit insane since these sweet aliens came maybe their cons cience is not clear maybe their victory is near. sometimes they s eem to know everywhere that we might go. i feel a little bit in sane these sweet aliens came maybe their conscience is not clea r maybe their victory is near
