

Action! Action!
Add a little chemistry, wait for the reaction
I can't explain what I don't know
You gotta light the touch paper and watch it go!

Lightning strikes
It cracks the sky
A flash of light
The beast will rise

Action! Action!
Take another hit for total satisfaction
I've been down for far too long
So if the feelings this good then it can't be wrong

Lightning strikes
It cracks the sky
A flash of light
The beast will rise

A great source of power put to work by the devils hand
The missed link in evolution no one understands
The flood, the plague, the drought, the rising of the tide
The leeches cling to me, the king of the parasites

Burning! Burning!
The feeling goes away but the planet keeps turning
Anaesthesia takes a hold
But the horrors unleashed make your blood run cold

Lightning strikes
It cracks the sky
A flash of light
The beast will rise
