

Sign Of The Witch

Orchid

We live in the shadows
Cast out over us all
You are the son of the devil
That we call our god in the sky

The lord of deception
You trade our freedom for gold
We put the killer that sold
The world away upon the throne

And you won't stop
Until there's nothing at all
Under the sign of the witch
You were born
Under the sign of the witch
You were born

You tear down the mountains
Put your death in the air we breathe
You fill the ocean with darkness
Pouring over again and again

The lies and illusions
You sell them to everyone
You are the hatred that fills the world
With sorrow and pain for us all

And you won't stop
Until there's nothing at all
Under the sign of the witch
You were born
Under the sign of the witch
You were born
