

Inside My Head

Orgy

Every time you think of me like your gn trophy
It just pushes me away
Pushes me

I never said I'd make you mine
Why do you insist on pushing all the time
I know it's not my vivid imagination
Telling you lies
Telling you lies

It's funny how you found the time
To expose yourself and be another one of these
Psychos all around me
Psychos all around me
Like to say my head's not right
My head's not right

Medicated aren't we all
Turning into you
Got me crazed with what you do
Inside my head there's a vision of you
And nothing's changing
Nothing's changing
I want to run away
And you say it's alright
I want to run away

Walk away
Just go
I think you're pushing, pushing me
To seek and discover to notice you're different than all the rest
Keeps telling me to ask why

Would it really hurt you to leave me alone sometimes
To seek and discover your genius uncovered
Your pain
Nothing's changing
Nothing's changing

Medicated aren't we all
Turn me into you
Got me crazed with what you do
Inside my head there's a vision of you
And nothing's changing
Nothing's changing
I want to run away
And you say it's alright

I want to run away
Pushing me away
Pushing me away
Pushing me away
Pushing me, pushing me
Pushing me

Medicated aren't we all
Turning into you

Got me crazed with what you do
Inside my head there's a vision of you

Medicate it are we're all
Turn me into you
You do
Inside my head there's a vision of you

Nothing's changing

Maybe it's not real
It's all inside my head
Maybe it's not real
