

I Go Crazy

Orla Gartland

I've got no clue what you're thinking
You move your hand away from mine
Shifty eyes and indecisions
Why does this happen every time?

Oh, won't somebody hold me and tell me it'll all work out
Say that there's nothing to worry about now
'Cause I'm so sick of the drama and I hate to shout
But you drag it out of me

Three words, two hearts, one maybe
Say something before I go crazy now
And my tears, your fears, don't phase me
Say something before I go crazy now
I go crazy (I go crazy now)
I go crazy

I feel like all of this has aged me
Right on the edge of 22
You look like you've just seen a monster
Is that what I look like to you?

Oh won't somebody hold me and tell me it'll all work out
Say that there's nothing to worry about now
'Cause I'm so sick of the drama and I hate to shout
But you drag it out of me

Three words, two hearts, one maybe
Say something before I go crazy now
And my tears, your fears, don't phase me
Say something before I go crazy now
I go crazy (I go crazy now)
I go crazy

It's only a matter of time
It's only a matter of time
Three words, two hearts, one maybe
Say something before I go crazy now
My tears, your fears, amaze me
But I'm still so devoted to you, it scares me

Three words, two hearts, one maybe
Say something before I go crazy now
And my tears, your fears, don't phase me
Say something before I go crazy now
I go crazy (I go crazy now)
I go crazy (I go crazy now)

It's only a matter of time
It's only a matter of time
