

Cops

Other Lives

You forgot your wallet, so the cops come rushing in
Was a matter of a simple task, too much to ask?
Now you didn't turn the lights off, so the fireman crashes in
It was a matter of a simple thing, now you got nothing

Ah you really fucked it up this time
Hey man, you really let us down
Now you really fucked me up this time
Hey man, you really let us go
Ah I should have known

You didn't learn your lesson in the good book you have read
Was a matter of a simple rule, didn't you think it through?
Nah, you didn't turn the lights on, so the cops come rushing in
It never ends up right

Ah you really fucked it up this time
Hey man, you really let us down
Now you really fucked me up this time
Now you really fucked me up this time

Hey now
Hey now
Hey now
Hey now
