

For the Last

Other Lives

Turning around, start from the beginning
Turning all the things and I'm in awe again
Turning my eyes so I can see
It's good enough for me
I, I sat you there for the last time

Gone in place the race of the living
Where the rivals meet their foe in the [?]
Oh well
I guess I'll advance in some retreat
Conditions will repeat
Oh, cause I'm here again like the last time

Fire, fire
And it's all in a dream I had
Somebody waits outside, so I hide
Fire, fire
And it's all in a dream I had
Well I looked and stared at you there for the last time

Now its coming round in full
And I'll be alive [?]
Shining the light so we can see
It's good enough for me
I, I stare at you then for the last time

Stare at you there, I stare at you there
Stare at you there, I stare at you there

Fire, fire
Well it's all in a dream I had
Somebody waits outside, so I hide
Fire, fire
And it's all in a dream I had
Well I looked and stared at you there for the last time
