

Great Sky

Other Lives

I'll look up to the sky,
And leave this world behind you
And run for cover.
I'll look to higher ground
And see this world around you,
There'll be no hesitation.

But can you move and shake?
Are you a dead man or a fake?

I'll look up to the sky,
And leave this world behind you
And run for cover.
I'll look to higher ground
And see this world around you,
There'll be no hesitation.

But can you move and shake?
Are you a dead man or a fake?
