

Fame And Miss Fortune

Otherwise

How many likes does it take,
To finally make a move and catch a break?
Another meme, another post
Passin' by another ghost
Checkin' every seven minutes
Hopin' that ya might get noticed
A million "friends", eleven shares
It proves to me that no one really fuckin' cares

They don't know who you are
But they know your name

Go stand in the center now
Nothin' is real till you take a bow
Livin' life in the spotlight is so
Overrated now
Whore it up so you might get found
Buildin' you up then breakin' you down
Fame and miss fortune is so
Overrated now

So follow me for all to see
I promise that I'll only show the best of me
A perfect life with no mistakes
A perfect lie to hypnotize is all it takes
Checkin' every seven minutes
Hopin' that ya might get noticed
A billion eyes livin' blind
Staring from the face that they hide behind

They don't know who you are
But they know your name

Go stand in the center now
Nothin' is real till you take a bow
Livin' life in the spotlight is so
Overrated now
Whore it up so you might get found
Buildin' you up then breakin' you down
Fame and miss fortune is so
Overrated now

You believe all the make-believe
You only see whatcha wanna see
Keep drowning in a
Keep drowning in a shallow fantasy

You don't know who I am
But you know my name

Go stand in the center now
Nothin' is real till you take a bow
Livin' life in the spotlight is so
Overrated now
Whore it up so you might get found
Buildin' you up then breakin' you down
Fame and miss fortune is so
